participating exclusively with know-how (recipes, production flows, marketing strategy, product authorization, production facility authorization, establishment sales and administrative teams).

In the production facility, liquid and granular fertilizers for the soil will be produced as follows:

Formulations of liquid nitrogen; complex formulations of liquid nitrogen, phosphorus and potassium; complex formulations of nitrogen, phosphorus, potassium, trace elements, humic and fulvic acids, brown algae and amino acids; solid granulated fertilizers based on organic carbon, nitrogen, phosphorus and potassium; solid granulated fertilizers based on phosphorus, sulfur, boron, magnesium and zinc and other liquid and solid fertilizers intended for large crops for medium and large farmers who carry out their activity in conventional agriculture.

The associated partner of Chromosome Dynamics will participate with the entire logistics: the buildings, the halls, the storage basins for 2 million liters of liquid fertilizer, the necessary equipment and the entire infrastructure.

The liquid soil fertilizer production facility will be the only facility of this type in Europe with this production capacity.

The commissioning date is estimated for the months of July-August 2023.
